

Eagle Eye News

presented by Excel Adventist Academy

United We Soar!

A Message From The Principal:

Proverbs 18:15 – The heart of the discerning acquires knowledge, for the ears of the wise seek it out.

Learning is a lifelong gift from God. Each day brings new knowledge, discoveries, and skills that prepare us for the future. When we approach learning with joy and curiosity, it becomes an exciting adventure rather than a chore. Let’s encourage our children to ask questions, to wonder, and to celebrate the progress they make along the way. True education is not just about grades, but about growing in wisdom and understanding. Together, let’s find joy in the journey of learning.

Blessings,
Ms. Ellis 🙏

Random fact about me:
I was raised in Rochester, New York!

CALENDAR

September

12 Friday Pizza

18 Open House (6-7pm)

19 Noon Dismissal (no pizza, no After School Care)

October

1-3 Fall Break, no school!

15 School Picture Day

ANNOUNCEMENTS

NEW yellow T-shirts for Fridays are available in the office.

Keep getting sponsors and registrants for our 2nd annual 5K Walk/Run!

Excel Adventist Academy
2nd Annual 5K Walk/Run
Fundraiser

Scan here by 9/15 to become a sponsor!

ONLINE REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED. PLEASE VISIT:

On this day, we remember the lives lost and the families forever changed on September 11, 2001. In the midst of sorrow, we also remember the light of God’s presence and the ways His people came together in compassion and service. As we reflect, may we continue to be a people of prayer, peace, and hope, trusting in the Lord who is our refuge and strength.

Meet our EXCELlent Eagles!

Marni
3rd grade

Q: What is your favorite Bible story?

A: Adam & Eve because I like reading about when God created everything.

Q: Would you rather use ice cream for lotion or have spaghetti for hair?

A: Ice cream for lotion.

Q: Do you have a hobby?

A: Yes, I play the piano and I like swimming.

Q: What is your favorite Bible text?

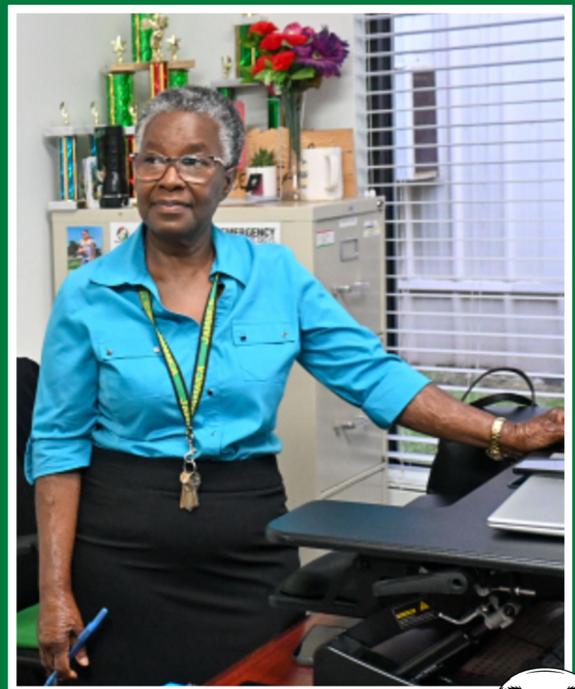

A: Let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.
~Galatians 6:9

Q: Would you rather have a personal chef or a personal driver?

A: A personal chef.

Q: What's a fun fact about yourself that most people wouldn't know?

A: I watch "The Sound of Music" every year and I always see something that I never saw before!

Ms. Winsome
Secretary

Lemonade, Anyone?

Carson tried to stay out of the movers' way as they carried furniture into the apartment, so he stood in the corner and frowned. "Why the long face?" asked one of the men who was helping.

"I don't like this apartment," said Carson. "I miss having my own yard." He didn't add that he didn't know anybody in the neighborhood and would have to go to a new school.

The man nodded. "Well, you know what they say—when life hands you lemons, make lemonade."

"Lemonade?" asked Carson.

The man smiled. "Yeah, you know—make the best of whatever happens. It may seem like a sour lemon, but it can turn into something sweet."

Carson sighed. He sounds like Mom, he thought. She's always saying God works things out for good.

Carson went outside and noticed a boy sitting on the steps. "Hi," Carson said, and the boy glanced up. He looked like he had been crying. "What's wrong?" Carson asked.

"I don't like it here," the boy replied. He had a strong, musical accent. "Bad things happened in my country, so my family left. But everything is different here, and my English is not good."

"Sounds fine to me." Carson sat down on the step beside his new neighbor. "I haven't moved as far as you, but I'm new here too. I have to start school on Monday and don't know anyone."

The boy looked at Carson. "I can walk to school and eat lunch with you," he said.

"Really?" Carson smiled. "And I can help you with English and anything else you have questions about."

A smile spread across the boy's face. "Want to play ball?" he asked, pulling up a soccer ball from the side of the step.

"Sure!"

As they kicked the ball around, Carson thought his new home might not be so bad after all. Maybe Mom and the moving guy are right, he thought. Maybe God is making lemonade out of the lemons I got—and the ones my new neighbor got too. I don't know what God has planned for me, but I'm glad He helped me make a new friend.

—Matilda H. Nordtvedt

HOW ABOUT YOU?

Is there a lemon in your life—something that's hard for you? God isn't allowing that circumstance into your life in order to hurt you. He uses everything we go through to make us more like Jesus so we can know Him better and share His love with others. Trust Him to use hard situations for good so others can see Jesus in your life.

We know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.

Romans 8:28

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Nyla - 9/1

Taylor - 9/7

Zoe - 9/15

Daniel - 9/22

Zari - 9/24

RIDDLE OF THE WEEK

What's one thing that tastes better than it smells?

Answer: Your tongue!

