United We Soar!

A Message From The Principal:

Colossians 3:23 - Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord.

Responsibility means doing what is expected of us with excellence. Whether it's finishing homework, caring for our classroom, or helping at home, each small action matters. When we give our best effort, we not only build character but also honor the Lord. Sometimes responsibility feels challenging, but it helps us grow into people who can be trusted with bigger opportunities. This week, let's encourage one another to do our best—not for recognition, but because everything we do is a chance to serve God.

Blessings,
Ms. Ellis 🙏

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Keep sharing the SchoolStore links with your family and friends. As long as they make their regular online purchases through our link, we will earn money!

Parents and students, there are still many non-uniform clothing items and shoes coming to campus. This will serve as the last reminder before individual letters are sent home.

We have a few patches in the office if your shirt is not already embroidered. Additional patches have been ordered.

We should also have a fresh set of Friday yellow T-shirts soon.

Burger Blessings

"What beautiful zucchini!" Mom said as she and Alex walked in their garden.
"It's amazing how God makes all kinds of wonderful food grow for us, isn't it? He's so good!"

Alex smiled and nodded, then looked down as his phone buzzed with a text message. "Nicholas's sister Joceyln is driving him to that new burger place down the road, and he invited me to go with them," he said. "Can I go?" Mom agreed, so Alex hurried off to join his friends.

When they sat down at the restaurant with their food, Alex remembered his mom's words. If zucchini was something to be thankful for, burgers were blessings for sure!

I want to thank God for the food, Alex thought. He usually prayed before meals, but he hadn't known Nicholas and Joceyln very long and didn't know if they were Christians. Will they understand? he wondered.

Nicholas took a big bite of his hamburger, then looked at Alex. "Why aren't you eating?"

Alex hesitated as Joceyln came to the table with napkins, then sat down and unwrapped her sandwich. He waited to see if she would bow her head. When she didn't, Alex decided to ask about it, even though he was a bit nervous. "Um, do you mind if I pray? I just want to thank God for the good food He's given us."

To Alex's surprise, Nicholas and Joceyln both looked up from their burgers and smiled. "That would be great!" said Joceyln. "We completely forgot to do that." Then they all bowed their heads.

When they finished, Joceyln grinned at Alex. "I'm glad you reminded us to pray. It's good to talk to God throughout the day and thank Him for all He's given us--even burgers!"

"You made me think of Daniel in the Bible," said Nicholas. "He prayed to God even though the king said he'd be thrown into a lion's den if he did. He prayed during a scary time, but it's just as important to pray during good times too."

Joceyln nodded. "Jesus wants us to go to Him in all situations--to thank Him in good times and look to Him for help in times of trouble." She smiled. "And now, here's something else you can thank Him for--ice cream sundaes on me!"

HOW ABOUT YOU?

Did you know you can pray to God anytime? Daniel prayed when people were trying to harm him and he needed strength from the Lord. But we can also pray to thank Him for good things as they're happening. Jesus gave His life to save you so you could have a relationship with Him. Talk to Him throughout your day, asking Him for help with your problems and thanking Him for blessings in your life.

Evening and morning and at noon I will pray, and cry aloud, and He shall hear my voice.
Psalm 55:17
